

1. My Literary Element: (DRAW WORD FROM WATERING CAN AND PASTE HERE. IF DID NOT DO THIS IN THE CLASSROOM, YOU CANNOT DO THIS STATION AS HMWK AND MUST DO THE OTHERS, THOUGH YOU CAN COMPLETE THIS ONE FOR EXTRA CREDIT. EMAIL ME WITH QUESTIONS.)

2. Write a sentence demonstrating your word below. Example: If you had alliteration, you want to demonstrate how alliteration repeats beginning sounds, so your example might be “I listened to the soothing sound of the rumbling sea”:

Example:

3. Now draw your sentence happening in the square above. For the example above for alliteration “I listened to the soothing sound of the rumbling sea”), you would draw someone by the ocean listening, and maybe being soothed (maybe an “ahhhhhh” in a thought bubble) Got it? Good! Now create a visual example of your word. Be ready to share!

4. What is happening? Explain your picture. For the example for alliteration above, a student might say: “I drew a person by the sea listening, and the “ahhhh” shows they are soothed. ‘Soothing,’ ‘sound,’ and ‘sea’ all start with S.” So how does your example and picture show the definition of your word?:
