STATION 1: Chapter 7 Keyword Notes

- 1. Take the Cornell Notes Template, fill out the heading, and open your book to page 770
- 2. The terms you need to focus on are listed in the left column of the notes. On the right column of the notes, include definitions and other important ideas associated with the terms from the left. Page numbers have been provided.
- 3. When done, write a short summary of the ideas on your notes at the bottom of the page.

Cornell Notes

Name: Teacher: Ms. Babcock	ESSENTIAL QUESTION: How is meaning created in poetry?
Subj: Eng II, Per: Date: Key Points:	Details:
(Create categories to group the information, as you write details, or after when processing)
Form (770):
0 : (55
Organic (770 771):)-
Traditional (771):	770-
Summary (process the notes in your words):

Cornell Notes

Key Points:	Details:
(Create categories to group the information, as you write details, or after when processing
Prosody (772):
Rhythm:
Meter:
Rhyme Scheme:
Assonance:
Consonance:
Alliteration:
Fig Language (774):
Imagery:
Simile:
Metaphor:
Personification:
Hyperbole:
Summary (process the notes in your words):		